Buch S. 75 Aufg. 2a) (Musterlösung):

Picture E (badlands): Do you know the sound of the wind? Have you ever listened to its stories? Did you know those stories could actually be seen? Well, look at me. I am a work of art shaped by the wind, rain and sun. I have been here for millions of years - standing, not moving, but always changing because of the wind. With its heavy Thunderstorms it broke away parts of me. It was painful to see that sand fly away. Over millions of years sun, wind and rain have worked my surface and painted me in their colours.

In my last summer holidays I visited a friend in South Dakota. We went on lots of nice trips and one weekend his family took me to the Mount Rushmore National Memorial. It was really amazing! There are four giant heads of former U.S. presidents carved into the mountain. You can see them from very far away! I had never seen anything like that before. A guide told us a lot about U.S. history and the importance of those four presidents. It was very interesting but I cannot remember all of the information. I remember that the face on the left shows George Washington, who was the first president of the USA. The other three heads show Thomas Jefferson, Theodor Roosevelt and Abraham Lincoln. We also could read parts of famous speeches that these presidents once gave.

The site was packed with tourists. Most of them were Americans who were really proud of the sculptures. Some told me that they had driven all the way from another U.S. state to visit the memorial. Well, I came from another continent to see it. 😊 And it was worth the trip.

Buch S. 76 Nr. 3) (Musterlösung):

I think Drew and Kaya will go on a date because Drew offered to help Kaya with rodeo practise and Kaya wants to improve her rodeo skills. Besides, Drew really likes Kaya and I think she likes him too.

I don't think that Drew and Kaya will go on a date because Kaya doesn't know Drew well enough to drive with him on her uncle's ranch. Her parents probably won't allow it. Maybe their parents won't want them to go on a date together because Kaya is Native American and Drew is a white boy. Maybe they have prejudices against Native Americans.

The different family members: Kaya Red Hawk, her mother, her aunt Jodi, her uncle and her cousins Randall and Cody

Where they live: Kaya and her mom live in Mobridge; Kaya's aunt, uncle and cousins live on the Standing Rock Reservation

Their language: Kaya's family speaks Lokato on the Standing Rock Reservation, Kaya only speaks English

Their way of life: Kaya's uncle has horses on the reservation; Kaya's cousins think she and her mom should also live on the reservation

2b) (Musterlösung):

Drew invites Kaya on his Family trip to Mount Rushmore on the weekend. Kaya thinks this is a problem because Mount Rushmore is a place where she as a Lakota shouldn't go. Maybe she doesn't want to meet Drew's Family on their first date either.

Buch S. 83 Textproduktion:

Buch S. 88 Nr. 2 a) (Musterlösung):

Kaya says she can't go to Mount Rushmore because it would make her family really angry. Her aunt told her that the Black Hills were sacred to the people and that Mount Rushmore was an insult to the Lakota, so she should never go there. Drew didn't know about that and he's disappointed that Kaya won't come. He wanted to do something fun with Kaya, not cause problems for her.

b) Hilfe: On page 76 Drew was in a really good mood, but now he's sad. One reason for that is the fact that he can't use his dad's truck anymore. Drew isn't happy that he always has to ask someone for a ride now (ll. 6-7)
